PRESS RELEASE

Wattre Corporation Awarded Monolithic Acoustic Transducer Array Patent

Woodburn, IN (December 3, 2012): Wattre Corporation is proud to announce today they have been awarded, by the United States Patent Office, the Monolithic Acoustic (MA) Transducer Array patent. The patent technology, found in the battle tested HyperSpike MA-Series, allows for a seamless acoustic sound field from up to a 360 degree device. The many variants of the device include coverage areas of 120-360 degrees of audio output from a single unit.

The MA-Series products break new ground in compact/lightweight acoustic sources covering wide areas in high quality voice, music, or alert tones.
